Personal Notes.

The Vanduzens.

The Vanduzens.--- There were two of the Vanduzen brothers among the first settlers, Conrad and Casper, both of whom appear to have taken a prominent part in the early affairs of the township. Conrad was most spoken of. He lived on the "front," on the Bay of Quinte shore, east next farm to the Allison's. He first kept a tavern there, and it was in his house, it is said, that Rev. Wm. Losee, the first Methodist preacher, preached his first sermon in the township, in 1790. He was converted and at once went and chopped down his sign post. Playter in his history of Methodism, speaks of him as unlearned, and at his first attempt at family prayer could only think of "Now I lay me down to sleep." Casper married the widow of Jacob Hoover, the first ~~pioneer~~ of the pioneer party who died, having been killed by the falling of a limb of a tree, not many months after the landing. The brothers were put down in the original Government list as "Loyalists from New York." Rev. Conrad Vanduxen, one of the early Methodist Ministers, was a descendant of one of these families. He died at Whitby a quarter of a century ago. They intermarried with the Huffs, and the descendants are numerous, but none of the name reside in Adolphustown.

HOWARD VANDUSEN

DESERONTO — The funeral of Howard VanDusen, former reeve and well-known resident of this community, was conducted by Rev. T. F. Townsend, pastor of Deseronto United Church, last Wednesday, at Gardner and White funeral home, here. Mr. VanDusen died suddenly of a heart attack while walking home from church.

Pall-bearers were Clayton S. Metcalf, E. M. Roach, T. L. McCullough, Oscar Fitchett, Ross Rendell and Hugh Fingland.

Mr. VanDusen was born in Picton 72 years ago, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas VanDusen. He was educated in Picton and Deseronto. He was well-known in marine circles, having served as ship's steward in the "North King," "Caspian," and "Alexandria." He later acted in the same capacity for Canada Steamship Lines. His last ship was the SS Harmonic which was destroyed by fire in 1946. During the winter months he was commissary manager for T. Eaton Company, Toronto.

Mr. VanDusen was associated with his father in the ownership

Docket Is Heavy For Picton Assize

PICTON — Hon. Mr. Justice Treleaven is presiding at sittings of the Supreme Court of Ontario for Prince Edward county, here this week. There are six civil jury cases, eight non-jury cases and one criminal case on the docket. Due to the record number of cases, all may not be heard at this sitting as Justice Treleaven has engagements elsewhere of the "Oliver Mowatt" which was lost in a collision on Lake Ontario. His father, the late Capt. T. L. VanDusen, went down with his ship.

Nov 2 1949

He was a school member and former board member of Deseronto United Church and took an active part in its affairs. Interested in municipal affairs, he was reeve of Deseronto in 1933. He actively supported the Conservative party.

Survivors are his wife, the former Pearl Ada Valteau, whom he married at Deseronto Dec. 16, 1908; a son, Thomas Stanley VanDusen, at home, and four brothers, Ralph E. VanDusen, Beloit, Wis.; H. W. VanDusen, Milwaukee, Wis.; E. H. VanDusen, Chicago, Ill.; M. L. VanDusen, Wellington. A brother, Daniel of Picton, predeceased him.

MEETINGS OF WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS

SYDENHAM CGIT

SYDENHAM—An afternoon tea was held in Wesley Hall under the auspices of the senior and junior Canadian Girls In Training groups. Each table represented a month of the year and was decorated accordingly.

Following the tea a short program was given consisting of vocal solos by Yvette Fillion and Julia Harker. A reading was given by Emily Grace Wood.

A ceremony took place in which the groups became affiliated with the Women's Missionary Society with parts being taken by the senior group. Mrs. Harry Pixley, president of the WMS welcomed the girls into the fellowship of her organization. Prayer offered by Rev. A. W. Seaton brought the ceremony to a close.

Mrs. A. W. Seaton was one of the speakers at the Sectional Presbyterials of the Women's Missionary Society in Chalmers Church, Kingston, and at Glenvale United Church.

HARROWSMITH WI

The Harrowsmith WI held their annual Hallowe'en party and meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. Clarence Ellerbeck, with some unusual and weird characters in attendance.

The prizes for costumes were given to Mrs. H. Goslin, dressed as a ghost winning 1st and Mrs. K. Leonard dressed as a Knight of the road winning 2nd. Mrs. G.

Plans were made for the Public Speaking contest in Harrowsmith. Mrs. George Deare, district director gave a report on the recent Board meeting held in the Government building, Kingston and Mrs. Mellville Ellerbeck and Mrs. Clarence Ellerbeck gave reports on the Area Convention held in Queen's University. Both these reports proved very interesting. Mrs. L. Moore, vice-president had charge of the meeting and expressed thanks to the ladies for their splendid reports. Mrs. C. Deare had charge of short program consisting of song and a contest which was won by Mrs. Ford Dowker.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. William Wallace and will be on Agriculture and Canadian Industries in charge of Mrs. C. Deare and Mrs. Wartman Wallace.

Angelo Patri:

Unfair to Judge Child as Adult

In dealing with children, mercy is always preferable to justice. Children who violate rules, who even go so far as breaking the law, cannot be measured in the same terms as adults: Inexperience and ignorance are the qualities of childhood and when children are victims of those qualities, as they so often must be, it ill becomes experienced teachers, older people in general, to mete out what they term justice to them.

A little boy of seven wrote a love note to a little girl and signed another boy's name to it. That was something he should not have done, of course, but he is seven years old. Experiencing his first love, shy about it, he hid behind another's name to express the feeling that possessed him. He wasn't bold and brave as a lover should be, but then, he is only seven and will have plenty of time to grow.

His mistake should be made plain to him so that he will not repeat it. He must learn to stand up for his beliefs, his acts, and shoulder his own responsibility. It was he who felt, and wrote, "I love you." He did not want the other boy to feel that way at all. Then he should have signed his own name to his note and stood by it boldly. But he is seven.

It would be a grave mistake to call that little boy a forger and to threaten him with jail for life. It would be much better to explain to him, kindly and sympathetically, what he did and what he ought to have done, and just why. To punish him severely for breaking a rule he knows nothing about, the implications of which quite escaped him, would be useless and cruel. Adult justice has no place in such matters. Justice demands that the child's stage of growth, his measure of intelligence, should be considered first and last. Mercy is what he re-

RESULT OF CANADIAN ACCIDENT

Warrant Issued For Driver of Car.

Mrs. Amelia VanDeusen, 70, widow of Watson J. VanDeusen, 224 North Pleasant street, who was injured in an automobile accident nine miles from Kingston Sunday afternoon was removed to the House of the Good Samaritan here by ambulance from a Kingston hospital late Monday. She suffered fractures of her right wrist and right ankle. Dr. Walter Fox Smith is her attending physician.

Mrs. VanDeusen was a passenger in a sedan being driven by her daughter, Miss Clara B. VanDeusen, 224 North Pleasant street. There were two other women passengers in the car, Mrs. Oliver D. Collins, 713 State street, who was bruised about her body, and Miss Helen D. Collins, 202 Park drive west, who suffered a fracture of her left arm, bruises to her right hand and shock. All of the women have returned to this city.

The four women, riding in a sedan owned by Charles W. VanDeusen, 124 Mullin street, son of Mrs. VanDeusen and a brother of the driver, were enroute to Kingston when the accident occurred about 3 Sunday afternoon. They left Watertown to view the new international bridge at Collins Landing and decided to motor to Kingston.

Mr. VanDeusen, who went to Kingston Monday and returned there again today, learned from Provincial police that the driver of the second car involved, W. Williamson, 36 Catherine street, Belleville, Ont., was attempting to pass three other cars and in doing so crashed headon into the VanDeusen machine.

Miss VanDeusen, sensing that an accident could not be avoided, steered her car off the highway. Mr. Williamson braked his car at the same time and then lost control of the machine as it struck a pile of sand. His car then careened into the front of the VanDeusen car. Mrs. Collins was thrown through the windshield.

Mr. VanDeusen said this morning that Provincial police have been unable to locate Mr. Williamson. He said they have a warrant for his arrest charging him with reckless driving. According to Provincial police, Mr. VanDeusen said, the man assumed all responsibility for the accident. The VanDeusen car was badly damaged. There were three other passengers in the Williamson car. They were only slightly injured.

RINGLING CIRCUS TO BE REVAMPED

LABOR TROUBLES, WHICH CLOSED IT, IRONED OUT

AIR-CONDITIONED, COLORED UP

John Ringling North Says Portable Air Conditioning Units Will Probably Be Put Under Seats —Harmonized Color Scheme Planned.

Atlanta, Nov. 8. (AP)—A modernized circus, air-conditioned, color conscious and geared to swing time is the plan of John Ringling North, president of Ringling Brothers-Barnum and Bailey.

Labor troubles which closed the big show last June 22 have been ironed out, North said, and already plans are underway for next year's return to the road.

Here with the Al G. Barnes-Sells Floto circus, another Ringling venture, North, his brother, Vice President Henry Ringling North, and Charles Lemaire, New York theatrical designer, sketched an intriguing picture of a circus "such as no one has ever seen."

The air conditioning probably will be done by installing portable units beneath the seats, John North said, while Lemaire discussed the proposed color scheme.

"It may be green with black, it may be blue, but everything will harmonize," said Lemaire. "We can't do away with the center poles, but we're going to make them less conspicuous and introduce lighting tricks never used before."

North added, however, that although colored up and harmonized, "the elephants, spangles, sawdust and peanuts still will be there."

STATE SETTLES DEATH CLAIMS

(Special to The Times.)

Ogdensburg, Nov. 8.—Final settlement on a hearing before the industrial board, state department of labor, bureau of workmen's compensation, in the death of Edmund Carriere, formerly of 217 North Rossell street, was announced to Attorney John J. Livingston today.

An award of $20 per week to the widow, Mrs. Armande Carriere, and two dependent children until they reach the age of 18 was made in addition to $200 for funeral expenses. Attorney's fees were set at $300 and expense.

The hearing is a result of an automobile accident at Croton-on-Hudson in December, 1936, in which Carriere was killed. A truck operated by him and owned by the Syracuse Freight and Forwarding company collided with a parked trailer.

²⁰¹ CONRAD VAN DUSEN, son of (99) Robert Van Deusen and Catharina Van Ham of Albany and Dutchess Counties, N. Y.; b near Dover, Dutchess Co., April 23, 1751; bp at Claverack April 28, 1751; m (1st) Oct. 27, 1771 HANNAH KOON or Coon, of Dutchess Co., who was b May 1, 1754, and d at Adolphustown, Upper Canada, March 8, 1791; (2d) July 9, 1791, at Adolphustown, MILICENT (FERGUSON) HOOVER, dau of Ferguson and widow of Jacob Hoover, whom she married May 19, 1789, and by whom she had one son, Jacob Hoover, Jr., b July 11, 1790. She died April 27, 1829, and was buried beside her husband, Conrad Van Dusen, in the old United Empire Loyalist burying ground at Adolphustown. Her first husband, Jacob Hoover, Sen., met his death by an accident. He was the son of Casper Hoover, a native of Holland, who immigrated to America and settled on the banks of the Susquehanna River in Pennsylvania. From Pennsylvania he removed to Adolphustown, Upper Canada, where he died July, 1786. Jacob Hoover was a Revolutionary soldier and, in September, 1787, filed a claim (No. 866) for property lost.

Conrad Van Dusen was a Loyalist in the struggle for independence in the American Colonies, and for that reason his property in Albany County, N. Y., was sequestered in 1778. From a report of Messrs. Matthew Adgate, Gabriel Esseltine and Isaac Goes, Commissioners of Sequestration for Southern District of Albany County, New York, dated Feb. 16, 1778, the personal property of 'Col. Vanduersen' Conrad Van Deusen, was sold for £27-18-0" (Comptroller's Office, Albany, N. Y.). His own account of this transaction is related in his claim to the British Government. "Montreal, November 9th 1787. Evidence on the Claim of Conrad Van Dusen, late of Albany County, New York Province. Claimant Sworn. Says he is a native of Dutchess County N. York Province. When the War broke out he lived on a Farm Leased forever from Col. Rensselaer. He continued to live at home until Feb'y 1777 when he went to N York. The cause of his leaving home at that time was to release Capt. Mc Alpin of Col. Fanning's Regt., who was taken prisoner Recruiting for the British Army. His life was in danger. Before that time he had trained in the militia but never served. He likewise took an oath, but he does not know the substance of it. Upon his coming to N York he enlisted in Col. Fanning's Regt. & was sent back to recruit. He served in that Regt the whole War. He now resides on Bay of Quinly 4th Township above Cataraqui. Property 139 acres of land on Ransseler's Manor on a lease forever which was dated in 1773. Says he purchased the Improvements at that time & pd £35 N Y for them. After the purchase he fenced a good part of it, & thinks when he left it the Improvements were worth 100 cur. He built a House & Barn which he values at 50 Cury. His Stock, one Horse, Wheat Corn Hay &c were all taken by the Rebels. Says the Landlord has Possession of the Lands. Produces affidavit of George Finkle & Peter Esseltine to the justness of the claim. His Papers were all taken by a Col Paterson" (From the Second Report of the Bureau of Archives for the Province of Ontario, 1904, Vol. 1, p. 368).

After his enlistment in Colonel Fanning's regiment, on his return journey to his home, on the recruiting errand spoken of above, he was taken prisoner while attempting to make his way through the American lines in disguise. He and his companion were tied together with ropes and conveyed to a private residence, where they were tried by court martial and sentenced to death. At the time he wore upon his little finger his wife's wedding ring, wrapped around with a strip of cotton, as if his finger was injured. He and his wife had exchanged their wedding rings engraved with their names, at the time of their parting, when he had started for New York, not knowing if ever they would meet again. As he and his fellow prisoner were being led out of the house where the court martial had been held, to await their execution, Conrad saw a look of commiseration in the lady of the house. Instantly surmising that he had her sympathy, he slipped the ring, with its covering, from his finger, and contrived to pass it to her without a word, unnoticed by the guard who had charge of the prisoners. During the night he and his companion made their escape and fled to the shelter of a swamp, lying part of the time, while the pursuit after them was hot, with only a part of their faces out of the water, to enable them to breathe. 367 HENRY COON VAN DUSEN, son of (201) Conrad Van Dusen and Hannah Coon of Adolphustown and Marysburg, Ont.; b at Adolphustown Jan. 16, 1786; d July 28, 1871; m Jan. 27, 1807, by Rev. Robert McDowall, to MARY HUFF; b Feb. 13, 1791; d June 23, 1870; dau of Solomon Huff (b 1751, d 1828) and Eva Swade (b 1757) of Adolphustown. Solomon Huff is said to have been a brother of Paul Huff, and to have served in the army during the Revolutionary War (Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte), but the records of such service have not been found, nor did he file a claim, as did Paul, for property abandoned.

In the church registers of the Rev. Robert McDowall there appears the record of the marriage of a Henry Vandusen to Hannah Hartman of Ernesttown, but who this Henry was has not been found. From the dates it was at first supposed to be the second marriage of Henry Coon Van Dusen, but his grandchildren, still living, assured that he was married only once, to Mary Huff. He was a man of wealth and social prominence, and was everywhere known as "Judge Van Dusen."

FIRST GENERATION

1 ABRAHAM PIETERSEN (VAN DEURSEN), the Ancestor, was born in the city of Haarlem, Holland, where he was baptized Nov. 11, 1607, in the Dutch Reformed Church. His intention of marriage was recorded at Haarlem Nov. 25, 1629, at which time he was dwelling on the Groote Houtstraat (Great Forest Street), Haarlem, and a bachelor. He was married on Dec. 9, 1629, to TRYNTJE MELCHIOES, spinster, born in Groningen and dwelling at the Smedestraat (Blacksmith street), Haarlem, (Records of the Groote Kerk, Haarlem).

It is probable that Abraham Pietersen and his wife left Haarlem for America very soon after their marriage, as no baptismal records of any of their children are found at that place between 1630 and 1635, and he is known to have been in New Amsterdam, now New York, in 1636, when he was recorded as "of Haarlem." The baptismal records of the Dutch Reformed Church at New Amsterdam date from 1639, therefore we have no record of the baptisms of the first four children of Abraham Pietersen and Tryntje Melchior, though, doubtless, they were born in that city. The baptisms of their two youngest sons, Pieter and Melchior, are found on the registers of the church, however. On April 14, 1657, Abraham Pietersen was granted a "Small Burgher Right" (New York Historical Society Collection, Vol. 18, p. 22). Four of his children, viz., Teuwis, Marytje, Jacob and Melchior, settled in Albany, their names, as found in various deeds, being almost invariably spelled Van Deusen, omitting the "r" which appears in their father's name.

Abraham Pietersen lived on the Heerewegh Straat, or Broadway, New Amsterdam, where he carried on the occupation of miller and innkeeper, trading also in land and cattle. The date of his death is not known.

CHILDREN, last two baptized in Dutch Reformed Church, New Amsterdam:

- 2 i Teuwis (Matthew), b a 1631; m a 1653, Helena Roberts.
- 3 ii Marytje, b a 1632; m (1st) 1651, Thomas Jansen Mingael, who d a 1661 or 1662; (2d) Evert Jansen Wendell.

SECOND GENERATION

² TEUWIS (MATTHEUS) ABRAHAMSEN (VAN DEURSEN) eldest son of (1) Abraham Pietersen (Van Deursen) and Tryntje Melchiors of New Amsterdam; b a 1631; m 1653, HELENA ROBBERTS.

Teunis Abrahamsen Van Duersen early removed to Beverwyck (Albany), where he was granted a lot Oct. 28, 1658. In 1667 he removed to Claverack. Munsell and Talcott both state, however, that he lived at Albany until 1700. On June 26, 1677, he deeded a house and lot to Paulus Martense Van Benthuyssen, the property being afterwards transferred by Van Benthuyssen to Harne Janse Lyndrayer. The following is an extract of the latter deed. "Appeared before me Ro. Livingston, secr &c and in the presence of the Honorable Messieurs Richard Pretty & Andries Teller, commissaries, etc. Paulus Martense Raenmaker (wagon maker) (Van Benthuyssen), who declared that he had in true rights, free ownership, granted conveyed and transferred to and for the behoof of Harne Janse Lyndrayer (ropemaker) in a certain house and lot standing and lying here in Albany,bounded south by Pieter Loockermans, north by the house of Laurens Van Ale & Jan Janse Bleecker, west and east by the public street, in breadth in front on the street (Broadway), which this grantor, does by virtue of the conveyance given him by Mattheus Abrahamse (Van Deusen) of date the 26 of June 1677," etc.

"Done in Albany, the 13th Dec. 1677.

"Paulus Martense

"Richard Pretty

"A. Teller

"Acknowledged before me

"Ro. Livingston, Secr."

He resided at Albany and Claverack, at which two places his children were probably born, but the baptismal records of Albany do not begin until Aug. 5, 1683, while those of Claverack date only from 1722, hence their names are not found on the records of either place.

In Memoriam

VANDUSEN.—One of our oldest and most respected members, Bro. J. R. VanDusen, has been taken to his home beyond the skies. The seventh and youngest son, he was born in Prince Edward county, in 1813. He was married to Charlotte Beman in 1837, moved to Tara in 1856, celebrated his diamond wedding in 1897, and after a happy married life of nearly sixty-two years, died in the triumphs of faith on November 18, 1898. He came of splendid ancestry. His father was a U. E. Loyalist, and served in the British army during the American Revolution. Bro. VanDusen was a Sabbath-school superintendent and class-leader for years, and first secretary of the Trustee Board. This latter office he held at the time of his death, his last entry made in the church book about two weeks before he died. Even at this great age, for he was in his eighty-sixth year, his hand was firm and strong, and his writing beautifully distinct. His last testimony given in the church was at the November love-feast, when, in the presence of a large number of members, he spoke with great freedom and unction. Three sons, engaged in business in this town, and one daughter, who lives at Lion's Head, and the aged widow, survive to revere his memory. Bro. VanDusen was a good man. We mourn the loss of our aged brethren, but thank God they die well.

Jacob R. W. S. Jamieson.

Our Father Conrad Van Dusen was born (near Albany at Dover) April 23rd 1751 and departed this life in Haysburgh on Saturday at 2 P.M. Oct. 3rd 1827. Aged 75 years 6 months 20 days.

Our Mother Melison Furguson was born May 9th 1766 and departed this life on Saturday at 3 A.M. April 7th 1829 aged nearly 63 years 62 years 10 months 28 days.
